REPORT NO.

1. The organization of the Ministry of New Provinces is seriously impeded by a lack of competent administrative personnel. An attempt has been made to recruit a cadre from the ministries in Belgrade, but the ministries are reluctant to part with experienced personnel because of the impossibility of finding suitable replacements.
2. There is an acute housing shortage in the Voloska-Opatija region which contributes to the unwillingness of civil servants to move there from other parts of Yugoslavia.
3. Consequently, the Yugoslav Government is currently considering the installation of sub-ministries in Postumia and leaving only the Headquarters of General Holjevac in the Voloska-Opatija region.
